

HERE TO STAY!

We are not quitters—not made that way. Neither have we a few baits to offer the people and then make up on something else. Our goods are all marked at a fair profit (in plain figures too) and it is our aim to continue this policy. We want to make money, that's what we're here for, but not at the expense of a few customers. We had rather have a greater volume of business and smaller profits. We believe in a square game from marbles to merchandise, and would not knowingly misrepresent one thing. Try us for anything you need. We'll save you money.

Since the holiday rush, we find many lines broken, and in order to clear them up have cut the already low prices still deeper. On our bargain counter you'll find many interesting items. Read the list then come in before the goods are gone--won't be here long.
